

November 5, 2008
Mazda Motor Corporation

Mazda's President Imaki Comments on the Selection of Mazda for the New Hiroshima Municipal Baseball Stadium Naming Rights

Mazda has received notice of its selection for the corporate naming rights to the "New Hiroshima Municipal Baseball Stadium." We wish to strongly reaffirm that we will sincerely take on the responsibility of supporting this new stadium, which will belong to the citizens of Hiroshima.

As a good corporate citizen that contributes to regional economic and industrial development through our corporate activities, Mazda strives to cooperate and work hand-in-hand with the local community to contribute to robust city development.

Mazda will positively support the new baseball stadium, "MAZDA Zoom-Zoom Stadium Hiroshima", to bring continued excitement to local residents and visitors to the city of Hiroshima.

Hisakazu Imaki
Representative Director,
Chairman of the Board and President
Mazda Motor Corporation